Y-Strong Foundations & Progress is an 8-week small group personal training program designed for adults 19+ who want structured guidance, accountability, and confidence in the gym.

This program bridges the gap between individual personal training and large group fitness classes. Participants receive personalized coaching in a supportive small-group environment while benefiting from the motivation and affordability of training alongside others.

Foundations Stream (beginner Little to no fitness experience)

Start Strong. Move Well. Build Confidence.

Perfect for beginners or those returning to exercise, the Foundations stream focuses on proper technique, safe movement patterns, and creating consistent, sustainable habits. This stream is all about learning the basics, building confidence, and setting a strong foundation for long-term success.

Progress Stream (Intermediate 1- 2 years of fitness experience)

Level Up Your Training. Push Further. Perform Better.

Designed for individuals with prior fitness experience, the Progress stream increases intensity while challenging strength, endurance, and overall performance. This stream is ideal for those ready to push past the basics and continue progressing toward their fitness goals

Each session is professionally coached, progressive, and adaptable to ensure participants feel challenged without feeling overwhelmed

Y Fitness Fundamentals - Group Personal Training (40+)

Build Confidence. Learn the Basics. Train with Purpose.

Ready to feel comfortable and confident in the wellness center? This 8-week, small-group training experience is designed specifically for those who want structured guidance and real results.

During 8 progressive sessions, you'll learn how to safely use cardio and strength equipment, master foundational movements like squats and deadlifts, explore TRX and stability ball training, and understand how to properly engage your muscles for maximum benefit.

This program isn't just about intensity — it's about intention. You'll focus on proper form, stability, mobility, and building full-body strength in a supportive, coached environment.

By the end of the program, you won't just know what to do — you'll know why you're doing it and how to continue confidently on your own.

- ✓ Learn proper technique
- ✓ Improve strength and mobility
- ✓ Discover equipment you may have been unsure about
- ✓ Gain confidence in your workouts
- ✓ Train in a supportive small group setting

Perfect for anyone wanting to strengthen their foundation of training knowledge.
